REPORT CONCERNING BAPTISTE'S WIFE OF VANCRAH AND HER SON LAJHARNA AT PRESENT LOCATED IN LUGGOD
1. VANDHLA was the eldest son of Thapura and was the most powerful of the Thapura's sons. He was the received head of the family.
(1) VANDHLA's position and relations with his wife and son.	VANCRAH	All the information concerning Vandhla's wife and son seems, relations with the Government	Viz. Sajipura, Lalgamhara, Vancrahna	and Lajharna, is content to be guided by what is written below.	by Mr. Murray.
British power and although there is no conclusion yet it is generally believed that he was responsible for said raid on our territory. He was captured in 1878 in the fight between the Luggod and the Pudi and until his death was held in confinement located on the most powerful Chief in the South Luggod hills.
In 1871 - 72 General Browne's column reached Sajipura's village and a number of his men were killed. In 1878 he and his family Sajipura retreated to the hills and never returned. They probably refused to come in.
In 87 - 88 Mr. Murray C.I. visited Sajipura and persuaded him that it was better for him to return to his home and he advanced, in his expedition of 88 - 89 Mr. Murray was sent to Sajipura's. At first, Vandhla refused to admit that he was ever a member of the British army.
In 88 - 89 Vandhla was built Sajipura which was then living 6 miles from Luggod and remained. It is west to keep up a strict silence of secretiveness. He has never been seen outside his village except through his son Lajharna on their way to the Muanglind. He died during the month of 1889 a consistent opponent of the British. Vandhla's son Lajharna was a daughter of Vancrahna, the chief galah when the British column was directed in 1871 - 72 another bitter enemy of the British.
(2) VANDHLA's & VANCRAH's Families. The following villages have sprung,

A NOTE OF THANKS

Dear Lalmuanpuia and all staff at Mizoram State Archives,

I'm writing to thank you for all your kind assistance over the years. My first book, The Mizo Discovery of The British Raj: Empire and Religion in Northeast India (1890-1920), was recently published by Cambridge University Press. It relies in large part upon papers held at Mizoram State Archives, and therefore also on the labour, generosity, and expertise of your staff members. Thank you.

The book - just another contribution to the ever-growing literature in Mizo Studies - would not have been possible without the Archives and its staff. I'd like to also acknowledge the ongoing work, vision, and dedication of the many other archivists and librarians across Mizoram, as well as the countless families who care for historical materials and records in their own homes.

My thanks again, and congratulations on the publication of this latest issue of Tungchaw!
